

CANDIDATE - PLEASE NOTE!
You must sign below and return this booklet with the Answer Sheet. Failure to do so may result in disqualification.

Signature

FORM TP 2016171

TEST CODE 02114010

MAY/JUNE 2016

CARIBBEAN EXAMINATIONS COUNCIL
CARIBBEAN ADVANCED PROFICIENCY EXAMINATION®

COMMUNICATIONS STUDIES

Paper 01

1 hour 30 minutes

04 MAY 2016 (a.m.)

READ THE FOLLOWING INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY.

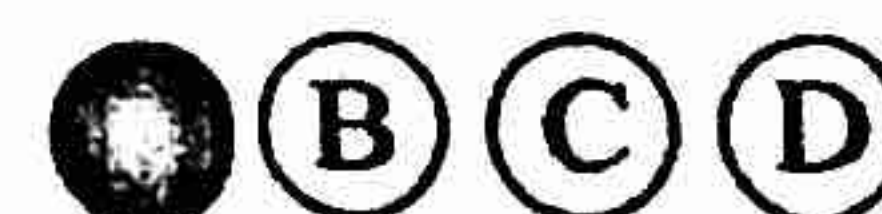

1. This test consists of 45 items divided into two sections, A and B.
2. Section A, based on a poem, consists of 7 questions. The poem, which is NOT included in the question booklet, will be read to you twice but you will be allowed two minutes to look at the questions before the poem is read to you.
3. Section B consists of 38 questions. Answer each question based on the information given.
4. In addition to the test booklet, you should have an answer sheet.
5. Each item in this test has four suggested answers lettered (A), (B), (C), (D). Read each item you are about to answer and decide which choice is best.
6. On your answer sheet, find the number which corresponds to your item and shade the space having the same letter as the answer you have chosen. Look at the sample item below.

Sample Item

Which of the following is an advantage of the questionnaire as a data-collection method?

- (A) Ease of administration
- (B) Immediacy of feedback
- (C) Openness of discussion
- (D) Opportunity for clarification

Sample Answer

The best answer to this item is "Ease of administration", so (A) has been shaded.

7. If you want to change your answer, erase it completely and fill in your new choice.
8. When you are told to begin, turn the page and work as quickly and as carefully as you can. If you cannot answer an item, go on to the next one. You may return to that item later.

DO NOT TURN THIS PAGE UNTIL YOU ARE TOLD TO DO SO.

SECTION A

Items 1-7

Instructions: You will hear an extract. It will be read twice. Listen carefully before answering the questions based on the extract.

1. What is the setting in the first stanza?
 - (A) A funeral
 - (B) An airport
 - (C) A train station
 - (D) An underground station
2. Which of the following BEST expresses the meaning of the phrase "blowing his nose to clear the sadness of departure"?
 - (A) The young man is crying.
 - (B) The young man is devastated by the departure.
 - (C) The young man copes with his grief by weeping.
 - (D) The impending departure has made the young man ill.
3. Which of the following BEST explains the purpose of stanza two?
 - (A) To show that everyone has to die
 - (B) To include all young people in the grief of partings
 - (C) To encourage people to empathize with one another
 - (D) To show that the speaker is not alone in the departure lounge.
4. The tone of the poem can be described as
 - (A) sober
 - (B) caustic
 - (C) nostalgic
 - (D) regretful
5. Which of the following expressions from the poem does NOT refer to the central theme of the poem?
 - (A) "ready to say goodbye"
 - (B) "Each time / we die a little"
 - (C) "These moments devastate"
 - (D) "blowing his nose to clear / the sadness of departure"
6. The main idea of the poem is that
 - (A) the author learns to accept partings
 - (B) people find it painful to deal with partings
 - (C) people eventually learn to deal with partings
 - (D) two young people are parting company on different flights
7. Which of the following literary devices are NOT used in the poem?
 - I. Pun
 - II. Metaphor
 - III. Oxymoron
 - (A) I and II only
 - (B) I and III only
 - (C) II and III only
 - (D) I, II and III.

DO NOT WAIT FOR THE EXAMINER TO TELL YOU TO GO TO THE NEXT PAGE.

SECTION B

Items 8–10

Instructions: Read the following scenario carefully and then answer Items 8–10.

A researcher was gathering information on the impact of streaming within a particular high school. He held a discussion with five sets of students from remedial classes in different forms or grades on how they are being affected by their placement.

8. What method of data collection did the researcher use?
- (A) Interview
 - (B) Focus group
 - (C) Questionnaire
 - (D) Participant observation
9. Apart from the students, which of the following persons would be the BEST source of primary data for this research?
- (A) Parents
 - (B) Teachers
 - (C) Education Officers
 - (D) Deans of Discipline
10. Which of the following is an advantage of using a questionnaire for this particular study?
- (A) Results can be easily quantified.
 - (B) It has a low rate of response.
 - (C) The researcher is able to ask follow-up questions.
 - (D) Respondents don't have to think carefully before formulating a response.

GO ON TO THE NEXT PAGE

Items 11–15

Instructions: Read the following scenario carefully and then answer Items 11–15.

At a recent meeting with the principal of Argyle Secondary School, the Ministry of Education revealed that a check of the most recent census documents shows that some senior students of the school have been attending classes irregularly. The Ministry decided to hire a research company to investigate the likely reasons for the students' irregular attendance.

11. Which of the following would be the MOST appropriate population for this study?
- (A) All students of Argyle Secondary that have been attending classes irregularly
 - (B) All senior students of Argyle Secondary that have been attending classes irregularly
 - (C) All students of secondary schools in the country that have been attending classes irregularly
 - (D) All senior students of secondary schools in the country that have been attending classes irregularly
12. Relevant demographic data about the student that the researcher might seek to obtain would include
- I. age
 - II. address
 - III. number of days absent
- (A) I and II only
 - (B) I and III only
 - (C) II and III only
 - (D) I, II and III
13. If the research company only collected data in the morning, which of the following would affect the data?
- I. Validity
 - II. Time spent in the field
 - III. Access to informants.
- (A) I only
 - (B) II only
 - (C) I and III only
 - (D) I, II and III
14. If the research company was observing the patterns of absenteeism among senior students, which of the following would be an advantage?
- (A) Directly experiencing the behaviour of participants
 - (B) Allowing its biases to affect what is observed
 - (C) Spending a long enough period of time collecting data
 - (D) Participants changing their behaviour while being observed
15. Which of the following URLs is NOT likely to provide trustworthy information on student attendance?
- (A) www.argylesecondary.edu
 - (B) www.ttministryofeducation.gov
 - (C) www.parentsargylesecondary.org
 - (D) www.argylesabsenttstudents.com

Items 16–20

Instructions: Read the following extract carefully and then answer Items 16–20.

The boy come back home for a few days holiday, see some crabs Crosby have in a barrel. This is the son: “Dad, what are those thangs there?” Talking like Englishman. Crosby ain’t tell him nothing. When he poke his finger in the barrel and the crab catch hold of him, he bawl: “Pa! The crab! The crab!” A well-educated boy, yes. Lawyer, economist or something.

Lovelace E., 1982, The Wine of Astonishment, p.14.

16. Which of the following expressions contains syntactical features common to Caribbean English Creoles?
- (A) “A well-educated boy”
(B) “what are those thangs?”
(C) “Pa! The crab! The crab!”
(D) “Talking like Englishman.”
17. What feature of Caribbean English Creole grammar is used in the expression “Crosby ain’t tell him nothing”?
- (A) Reduplication
(B) Double negative
(C) Syllable reduction
(D) Zero copula structure
18. What attitude does the text ‘Talking like Englishman. Crosby ain’t tell him nothing.’ suggest that the narrator has towards the boy?
- (A) Jealousy
(B) Frustration
(C) Amusement
(D) Disapproval
19. What does the extract suggest about the relationship between the boy’s education and his use of language?
- (A) His education makes him speak properly.
(B) His education has influenced his language.
(C) As an economist, he speaks Standard English.
(D) He speaks English Creole because he is an educated lawyer.
20. What is suggested in the narrator’s final statement, “Lawyer, economist or something”?
- (A) He was unable to recall the correct information.
(B) He is not in awe of the young man’s educational achievements.
(C) He does not think that the young man’s profession is important.
(D) He does not care that the young man has become a professional.

GO ON TO THE NEXT PAGE

Items 21–25

Instructions: Read the following extract carefully and then answer Items 21–25.

Miss Clemmie keep on looking at Ascot as if he is stranger and Dagoman sit on the bench outside as if he too fraid to come near the lady. The children start play round the car and make as if to open the door and Ascot snap at them so bad that my mother had to say, “Hi Ascot, is your own little brothers yu treating so?”

“Half brother,” Ascot say.

From then on things just get from bad to worse. Ascot look like he real vex with Miss Clemmie, and the wife and stepfather look like they real vex with Ascot. So finally Ascot say, “Come let me take you all home for I have to get back to Kingston tonight.” But by this time Dagoman face set and he say he prefer to walk and Miss Clemmie and the children get into the car alone, and even though Miss Clemmie look like she going to cry, you can still see she feeling proud to have her son driving her in car. But as they drive off, all we can hear is Ascot shouting at the children to take their dirty feet off the car seat.

Adapted from “Ascot” Summer Lightning and other stories
By Olive Senior, Longman Caribbean Writers, 1986.

21. Which of the following does NOT contribute to the tension among the characters?

(A) Ascot snapping at the children
(B) Miss Clemmie looking at Ascot as if he is a stranger
(C) Dagoman silently angry with Ascot for snapping at the children
(D) Miss Clemmie feeling proud to have Ascot drive her in his car

22. When Ascot says “Come let me take you all home ...”, he aims to

(A) make Dagoman angry
(B) get back to Kingston that night
(C) ease the tension among the family
(D) take his mother and her other children for a drive

23. Which of the following does NOT convey a communicative behaviour?

(A) ‘Ascot snap at them’.
(B) ‘Dagoman sit on the bench outside’.
(C) ‘The children start play round the car’.
(D) ‘The wife and stepfather look like they real vex with Ascot’.

24. The writer’s use of English Creole throughout the extract suggests all of the following EXCEPT that she

(A) accepts that English Creole is a broken language
(B) thinks that English Creole is an authentic language
(C) thinks that English Creole can be used for literary purposes
(D) accepts that English Creole is means of communication by people

25. Which of the following grammatical features is NOT present in the first sentence of the extract?

(A) Reduplication
(B) Subject-adjective structure
(C) Unmarked noun with singular meaning
(D) Unmarked verb with past-time reference

Items 26–28

Instructions: Read the following extract carefully and then answer Items 26–28.

‘Eh-eh! Don’t shout at me,’ was all he got for his pains. ‘Don’t you deafen me. What’s that the young varmint says, Maud?’

Mrs Dovecot came over and got him to understand after two or three attempts.

“Three pence, Maudie,” he cackled. “Three pence! Did yo’ hear thet, Maud? Did yo’ ever hear the like? I’ll bet you ain’t never did. Three pence! The lad’ll have money what I’s got to sweat blood for, just to gi thet Megahey what’s got his bread so well-buttered off ‘pon both sides, not to mention the middle. Three pence! Ha ha!...oh Maudie... .” And he broke down once in helpless laughter. Clement went out and sat under the breadfruit tree that grew before the door, resting his back against the trunk.

Adapted from Uriel Narinesingh,
Voyage – An Anthology of Short Stories and Poems, 2006, p.118.

26. Which of the following types of registers is used in the dialogue?

- (A) Frozen
- (B) Formal
- (C) Intimate
- (D) Consultative

27. How might the following expressions be BEST classified?

- I. ‘he cackled’
 - II. ‘he broke down once in helpless laughter’
 - III. ‘Clement went out and sat under the breadfruit tree’
- (A) Proxemics
 - (B) Paralanguage
 - (C) Verbal communication
 - (D) Non-verbal communication

28. Which of the following are non-standard English texts?

- I. ‘what I’s got to sweat blood for’
 - II. ‘Three pence!’
 - III. ‘Did yo’ hear thet, Maud?’
- (A) I and II only
 - (B) I and III only
 - (C) II and III only
 - (D) I, II and III

GO ON TO THE NEXT PAGE

Items 29-30

Instructions: Select the most appropriate answer for Items 29-30.

29. Which of the following BEST explains the meaning of the term 'lingua franca'?
- (A) A language which is derived from French and used by African slaves.
 - (B) Any language which is native to African peoples who have been transplanted.
 - (C) Any language which is foreign to a speaker who moves to a new speech community.
 - (D) A language used as a common means of communication by speakers whose native languages are different.
30. Which of the following are examples of language performing a social function?
- I. Making a request
 - II. Talking to oneself
 - III. Audio conferencing
- (A) I and II only
 - (B) I and III only
 - (C) II and III only
 - (D) I, II and III

Items 31-33

Instructions: Read the following scenario carefully and then answer Items 31-33.

A group of ten students from McIntosh High in Jamaica are visiting Cuba to improve their knowledge of Spanish and Cuban culture. They are being hosted by students from José Martí High. When they return to school, they will be required to write a report on their experience.

31. Which of the following contexts of communication BEST describes the interaction between the two groups of students?
- (A) Intercultural
 - (B) Small-group.
 - (C) Interpersonal
 - (D) Organizational
32. In which of the following genres will the report MOST likely be written?
- I Narrative
 - II. Exposition
 - III. Argument
- (A) I and II only
 - (B) I and III only
 - (C) II and III only
 - (D) I, II and III
33. While in Cuba the students attended a seminar. The guest speaker noticed that many of the visitors seemed restless during his presentation, even though he was speaking audibly. Which of the following was NOT likely responsible for their restlessness?
- (A) He was speaking too fast.
 - (B) He was speaking in a monotone.
 - (C) He was using many unfamiliar words.
 - (D) He complemented his speech with projected slides.

Items 34–37

Instructions: Read the following scenario carefully and then answer Items 34–37.

During assembly, Sally, a fifth-form student, gives the following speech on the topic “Why I am proud to be from the Caribbean”. While she is giving her presentation, some students keep covering their mouths and snickering. However, Sally does not notice this because her eyes are glued to the paper from which she is reading.

‘A pleasant good morning. How are you, friends and family? Let me see the hands of those who are having a good time. Come on; let me see the hands of those who are having a good time. Wave your hands and say, “Yeah, yeah!”.

Okay. I am proud to be from the Caribbean because my parents are of African descent. The Caribbean is mostly black country; therefore most of the people are black. I am one of them. My father black, my mother black and my brother black. We all black.’

34. Which of the following is the stage of the communication process at which Sally generated ideas for her speech?
- (A) Decoding
 - (B) Interpreting
 - (C) Conceptualizing
 - (D) Giving feedback
35. Which of the following BEST explains why some students covered their mouths and glanced at one another?
- (A) They identified with Sally.
 - (B) The presentation was too boring.
 - (C) They were angry at Sally’s choice of words.
 - (D) They were amused by Sally’s choice of words.
36. Which of the following is NOT a message that Sally’s lack of eye contact could be sending?
- (A) She is nervous.
 - (B) She is well prepared.
 - (C) She is not articulate enough.
 - (D) She did not do enough research.
37. Which of the following BEST describes the method of discourse in Sally’s speech?
- (A) It is argumentative.
 - (B) It is mainly expository.
 - (C) It is mainly conversational.
 - (D) It is a mixture of narrative and argument.

Items 38–42

Instructions: Study the following scenario carefully and then answer Items 38–42.

①  Fight down Babylon. Wo! Wo! Stand firm. young bredren Wo! Wo!	②  Barry's father Barry, how could you listen to this? I don't understand a word!
③  But Dad, this song is very profound! It is saying that young men need to think for themselves and not blindly follow the established opinions of others.	④  Well, why didn't he say it like that? ⑤  Then it wouldn't be a cool tune!

38. Which of the following categories of non-verbal communication are at work in the scenario?

- I. Paralanguage
- II. Vocalics
- III. Chronemics

- (A) I only
- (B) II only
- (C) I and II only
- (D) I and III only

39. Instead of the words used in Frame 2, what nonverbal behaviour could Barry's father have used to convey the same message?

- (A) Shake his head
- (B) Turn off the radio
- (C) Hum under his breath
- (D) Raise his brows quizzically

40. What barrier to the communication process is the response of Barry's father highlighting in Frame 2?

- (A) The singer's voice
- (B) The beat of the song
- (C) The lyrics of the song
- (D) The loudness of the music

41. If Barry had held up his hand and turned his palm towards his father when the latter asked his question, what communication function would he be engaging in?

- (A) Regulating
- (B) Reinforcing
- (C) Accentuating
- (D) Contradicting

42. Barry's use of "cool" in Frame 5 is an example of

- (A) slang
- (B) jargon
- (C) dialect
- (D) profanity

Items 43–45

Instructions: Read the following scenario carefully and then answer Items 43–45.

A sixth-form class was practising to write expository essays. The students were exposed to the various features of exposition and guidelines for producing this type of essay in an academic context.

43. A student's expository essay should typically aim to
- (A) recount experiences
 - (B) affect the emotions
 - (C) enlighten and instruct the reader
 - (D) present the writer's personal viewpoint
44. Which of the following would be the MAIN organizational strategy used in an expository essay on the topic: "Types of luxury vehicles"?
- (A) Description
 - (B) Classification
 - (C) Chronological order
 - (D) Comparison and contrast
45. Which of the following techniques is typically NOT used in exposition?
- (A) Emotive language
 - (B) Facts and statistics
 - (C) Information from experts
 - (D) Details supporting main points

END OF TEST

IF YOU FINISH BEFORE TIME IS CALLED, CHECK YOUR WORK ON THIS TEST.