

CANDIDATE – PLEASE NOTE!

You must sign below and return this booklet with the Answer Sheet. Failure to do so may result in disqualification.

Signature _____

TEST CODE 02114010

MAY/JUNE 2017

FORM TP 2017174

CARIBBEAN EXAMINATIONS COUNCIL
CARIBBEAN ADVANCED PROFICIENCY EXAMINATION®
COMMUNICATION STUDIES

Paper 01

1 hour 30 minutes

05 JUNE 2017 (a.m.)

READ THE FOLLOWING INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY.

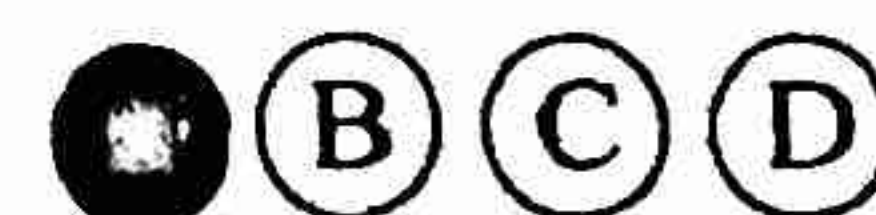

1. This test consists of 45 items divided into two sections, A and B.
2. Section A, based on a communication extract, consists of 7 questions. The extract, which is NOT included in the question booklet, will be read to you twice but you will be allowed two minutes to look at the questions before the extract is read to you.
3. Section B consists of 38 questions. Answer each question based on the information given.
4. In addition to the test booklet, you should have an answer sheet.
5. Each item in this test has four suggested answers lettered (A), (B), (C), (D). Read each item you are about to answer and decide which choice is best.
6. On your answer sheet, find the number which corresponds to your item and shade the space having the same letter as the answer you have chosen. Look at the sample item below.

Sample Item

Which of the following is an advantage of the questionnaire as a data collection method?

- (A) Ease of administration
- (B) Immediacy of feedback
- (C) Openness of discussion
- (D) Opportunity for clarification

Sample Answer

The best answer to this item is "Ease of administration", so (A) has been shaded.

7. If you want to change your answer, erase it completely and fill in your new choice.
8. When you are told to begin, turn the page and work as quickly and as carefully as you can. If you cannot answer an item, go on to the next one. You may return to that item later.

DO NOT TURN THIS PAGE UNTIL YOU ARE TOLD TO DO SO.

SECTION A

Items 1-7

Instructions: You will hear an extract. It will be read twice. Listen carefully before answering the questions based on the extract.

1. What is the main idea of the extract?
 - (A) Spring is a time of tremendous beauty.
 - (B) Birds are a part of the beauty of spring.
 - (C) Spring seems to have appeared overnight.
 - (D) The spring rains make everything beautiful.
2. The writer's main purpose is to
 - (A) show that spring comes right after winter
 - (B) comment on what the birds do at springtime
 - (C) convey the memorable impact of spring's arrival
 - (D) describe the beauty of the natural world during springtime
3. The expression "The flowers of late April took up a position unseen" is an example of
 - (A) metaphor
 - (B) hyperbole
 - (C) alliteration
 - (D) personification
4. What is the dominant imagery used by the writer in the extract?
 - (A) Aural
 - (B) Visual
 - (C) Tactile
 - (D) Olfactory
5. The word that BEST describes the mood of the passage is
 - (A) idyllic
 - (B) sombre
 - (C) peaceful
 - (D) exhilarating
6. The word closest in meaning to "unsealing" as used in the extract is
 - (A) gaping
 - (B) opening
 - (C) exposing
 - (D) prospering
7. Which of the following devices is reflected in the final sentence?
 - (A) Irony
 - (B) Contrast
 - (C) Oxymoron
 - (D) Personification

DO NOT WAIT FOR THE EXAMINER TO TELL YOU TO GO TO THE NEXT PAGE.

SECTION B

Items 8–11

Instructions: Read the following scenario carefully and then answer Items 8–11.

The media is filled with reports of teenagers being distracted by digital technology and that preoccupation is affecting their school work. Haldane, a sociology student, decides to investigate this phenomenon at his school which is located in the countryside. He intends to use interviews to collect data.

8. Which of the following activities would Haldane need to undertake as part of his research?

- I. Talking to parents and teachers
- II. Finding out how many students own digital devices
- III. Choosing a sample that is representative of his school's population

- (A) I and II only
- (B) I and III only
- (C) II and III only
- (D) I, II and III

9. Which of the following would be an advantage if Haldane conducted interviews?

- (A) Costliness of the procedure
- (B) Wide geographic coverage of informants
- (C) High reliability of the information to be collected
- (D) In-depth nature of the information to be collected

10. Haldane found an article entitled "Modern Technology Causing Canadian Students to Fail". This article could be useful to his research as it

- (A) is reliable and accurate
- (B) can yield sufficient data
- (C) provides secondary data
- (D) can provide primary data

11. Why would it be UNACCEPTABLE for Haldane to apply the findings of his research to all teenagers?

- (A) He plans to use only interviews.
- (B) The school has more girls than boys.
- (C) The respondents might not tell the truth.
- (D) The population is only students from his school.

Items 12-15

Instructions: Read the following extract carefully and then answer Items 12-15.

Ms Trecia Davis is head of the English Department at Malcolm High School. She realizes that over a five year-period, fewer students are choosing Literatures in English as an option in the sixth form. She would like to research the reason for this and to put in place a programme to reverse this situation.

12. Which of the following outcomes would NOT be achieved if Ms Davis uses school records for the past ten years as a data source?
- (A) Validity
 - (B) Accuracy
 - (C) Credibility
 - (D) Subjectivity
13. Which of the following factors can invalidate the generalization which the researcher makes from the findings?
- (A) The sample size is too large.
 - (B) The sample is not representative of the population.
 - (C) The research is carried out only in Ms Davis' school.
 - (D) The research is conducted during end of year examination of year examination.
14. Which of the following MUST the researcher consider when selecting a sample?
- I. Composition of the school's population
 - II. Size of the school's population
 - III. Accuracy of the school's data
- (A) I and II only
 - (B) I and III only
 - (C) II and III only
 - (D) I, II and III
15. The mode of writing that Ms Davis should employ in her report is
- (A) narration
 - (B) argument
 - (C) exposition
 - (D) description

Items 16-19

Instructions: Read the following extract carefully and then answer Items 16-19.

The boy come back home for a few days holiday, see some crabs Crosby have in a barrel. This is the son: "Dad, what are those thangs there?" Talking like Englishman. Crosby ain't tell him nothing. When he poke his finger in the barrel and the crab catch hold of him, he bawl: "Pa! The crab! The crab!" A well-educated boy, yes. Lawyer, economist or something.

*Earl Lovelace E, The Wine of Astonishment.
Heinemann Publishers 1986, p.14.*

16. Which of the following expressions contains syntactical features common to Caribbean English Creoles?
- (A) "A well-educated boy"
 - (B) "What are those thangs?"
 - (C) "Pa! The crab! The crab!"
 - (D) "Talking like Englishman."
17. What feature of Caribbean English Creole grammar is used in the expression, "Crosby ain't tell him nothing"?
- (A) Absence of a copula
 - (B) Reduction of a syllable
 - (C) Use of double negatives
 - (D) Repetition of the same word
18. What attitude towards the boy is suggested by the narrator's statement, "Talking like Englishman. Crosby ain't tell him nothing"?
- (A) Jealousy
 - (B) Frustration
 - (C) Disapproval
 - (D) Amusement
19. What does the extract suggest about the relationship between the boy's education and his use of language?
- (A) His education has influenced his language.
 - (B) His education hindered his use of Standard English.
 - (C) He speaks English Creole because he is an educated lawyer.
 - (D) His education has nothing to do with his use of Standard English.

Items 20–22

Instructions: Read the following extract carefully and then answer Items 20–22.

“Eh-eh! Don’t shout at me,” was all he got for his pains. “Don’t you deafen me.

What’s that the young varmint says, Maud?”

Mrs Dovecot came over, and got him to understand after two of three attempts.

“Three pence, Maudie,” he cackled. “Three pence! Did yo’ hear thet, Maud? Did yo’ ever hear the like? I’ll bet you ain’t never did. Three pence! The lad’ll have money what I’s got to sweat blood for, just to gi thet Megahey what’s got his bread so well buttered off ‘pon both sides, not to mention the middle. Three pence! Ha ha! ... oh Maudie ...” And he broke down once in helpless laughter. Clement went out and sat under the breadfruit tree that grew before the door, resting his back against the trunk.

*Adapted from Uriel Nariensingh, Voyage: An Anthology of Short Stories and Poems.
Royards Publishing, 2006, p. 118*

20. Which of the following expressions contains features of non-standard English dialect?
- I. “... you ain’t never did.”
 - II. “... what I’s got to sweat blood for ...”
 - III. “... sat under the breadfruit tree ...”
- (A) I and II only
 - (B) I and III only
 - (C) II and III only
 - (D) I, II and III
21. Which of the following communicative behaviours is NOT present in the extract?
- (A) Vocalics
 - (B) Chronemics
 - (C) Proxemics
 - (D) Facial Expression
22. Which of the following registers is used in the dialogue?
- (A) Casual
 - (B) Frozen
 - (C) Formal
 - (D) Consultative

Items 23–28

Instructions: Read the following extract carefully and then answer Items 23–28.

Rufus had in him a passion, a kinda vexation that when he stand up before a crowd he would get all tangle up with his words and his feelings. But Rufus don't have the education. They tell this story, how one night at a meeting, Rufus was talking about the cost of living.

'People can't eat book in this country,' Rufus say. 'People can't eat words. What the people need is bread - BRED - bread.'

'Rufus, you leave out the A,' somebody from the crowd call out to him. And Rufus correct himself, 'B-R-E-D-A.' They tell of another time ... the reporter tell Rufus that Mr Richardson suggest that they should put more buoys out in the sea to mark the area.

'Boys?' Rufus say. ... Big, big men does drown out there in the sea and he want to put boys.'

No, we couldn't vote for Rufus. 'Who we want in the Council is a man that qualify. ... a man with education just like the people in Britain' ... Ivan could really talk. Rufus was all right. But after you listen to Ivan Morton, you had to put Rufus aside.

*Earl Lovelace, The Wine of Astonishment.
Heinemann Publishers, 1986, pp. 83–85.*

23. What purpose is language serving when it is used to judge one's level of education as in the case with Rufus?
- (A) Social
(B) Ethical
(C) Political
(D) Psychological
24. Which of the following BEST shows why the narrator relates the stories about Rufus?
- (A) To provide some comic relief
(B) To show that Rufus is uneducated
(C) To show some of the mistakes Rufus makes
(D) To validate the view that Rufus is competent
25. Which of the following sets of communicative behaviours is likely to be displayed by the people as they listened to Rufus speak?
- (A) Lack of eye contact, loud cheers
(B) Loud cheers, thunderous applause
(C) Shaking heads, lack of eye contact
(D) Thunderous applause, shaking heads
26. Which of the following attitudes may be inferred about the narrator based on his account of Rufus' behaviours?
- (A) He values education.
(B) He likes the British people.
(C) He does not like people with passion.
(D) He was unsympathetic towards Rufus.

GO ON TO THE NEXT PAGE

27. Which of the following Creole features is evident in the structure "tangle up with his words and his feelings"?

- (A) Repetition
- (B) Reduplication
- (C) Unmarked present tense
- (D) Unmarked past participle

28. Which of the following words appropriately capture(s) the crowd's attitude towards Rufus?

- I. Affection
- II. Dissatisfaction
- III. Contempt

- (A) II only
- (B) III only
- (C) I and II only
- (D) I, II and III

Items 29-30

Instructions: Select the most appropriate answer for Items 29-30.

29. An English Creole in the Caribbean may be defined as a language
- (A) with limited linguistic functions
 - (B) used by the poorest people in the society
 - (C) only understood by some persons in the society
 - (D) developed from contact between Europeans and Africans
30. In which of the following expressions is the process of reduplication evident?
- (A) Eye-water
 - (B) Step-sister
 - (C) A waa gwaan
 - (D) Chaka-chaka house

GO ON TO THE NEXT PAGE

Items 31–33

Instructions: Read the following extract carefully and then answer Items 31–33.

Mrs Smith asked her class to prepare short presentations on the topic “Why I favour Caribbean people more than any other set of persons”. The students were to pretend that their audience comprised nationals of various English-speaking countries. The following is an excerpt from one student’s speech.

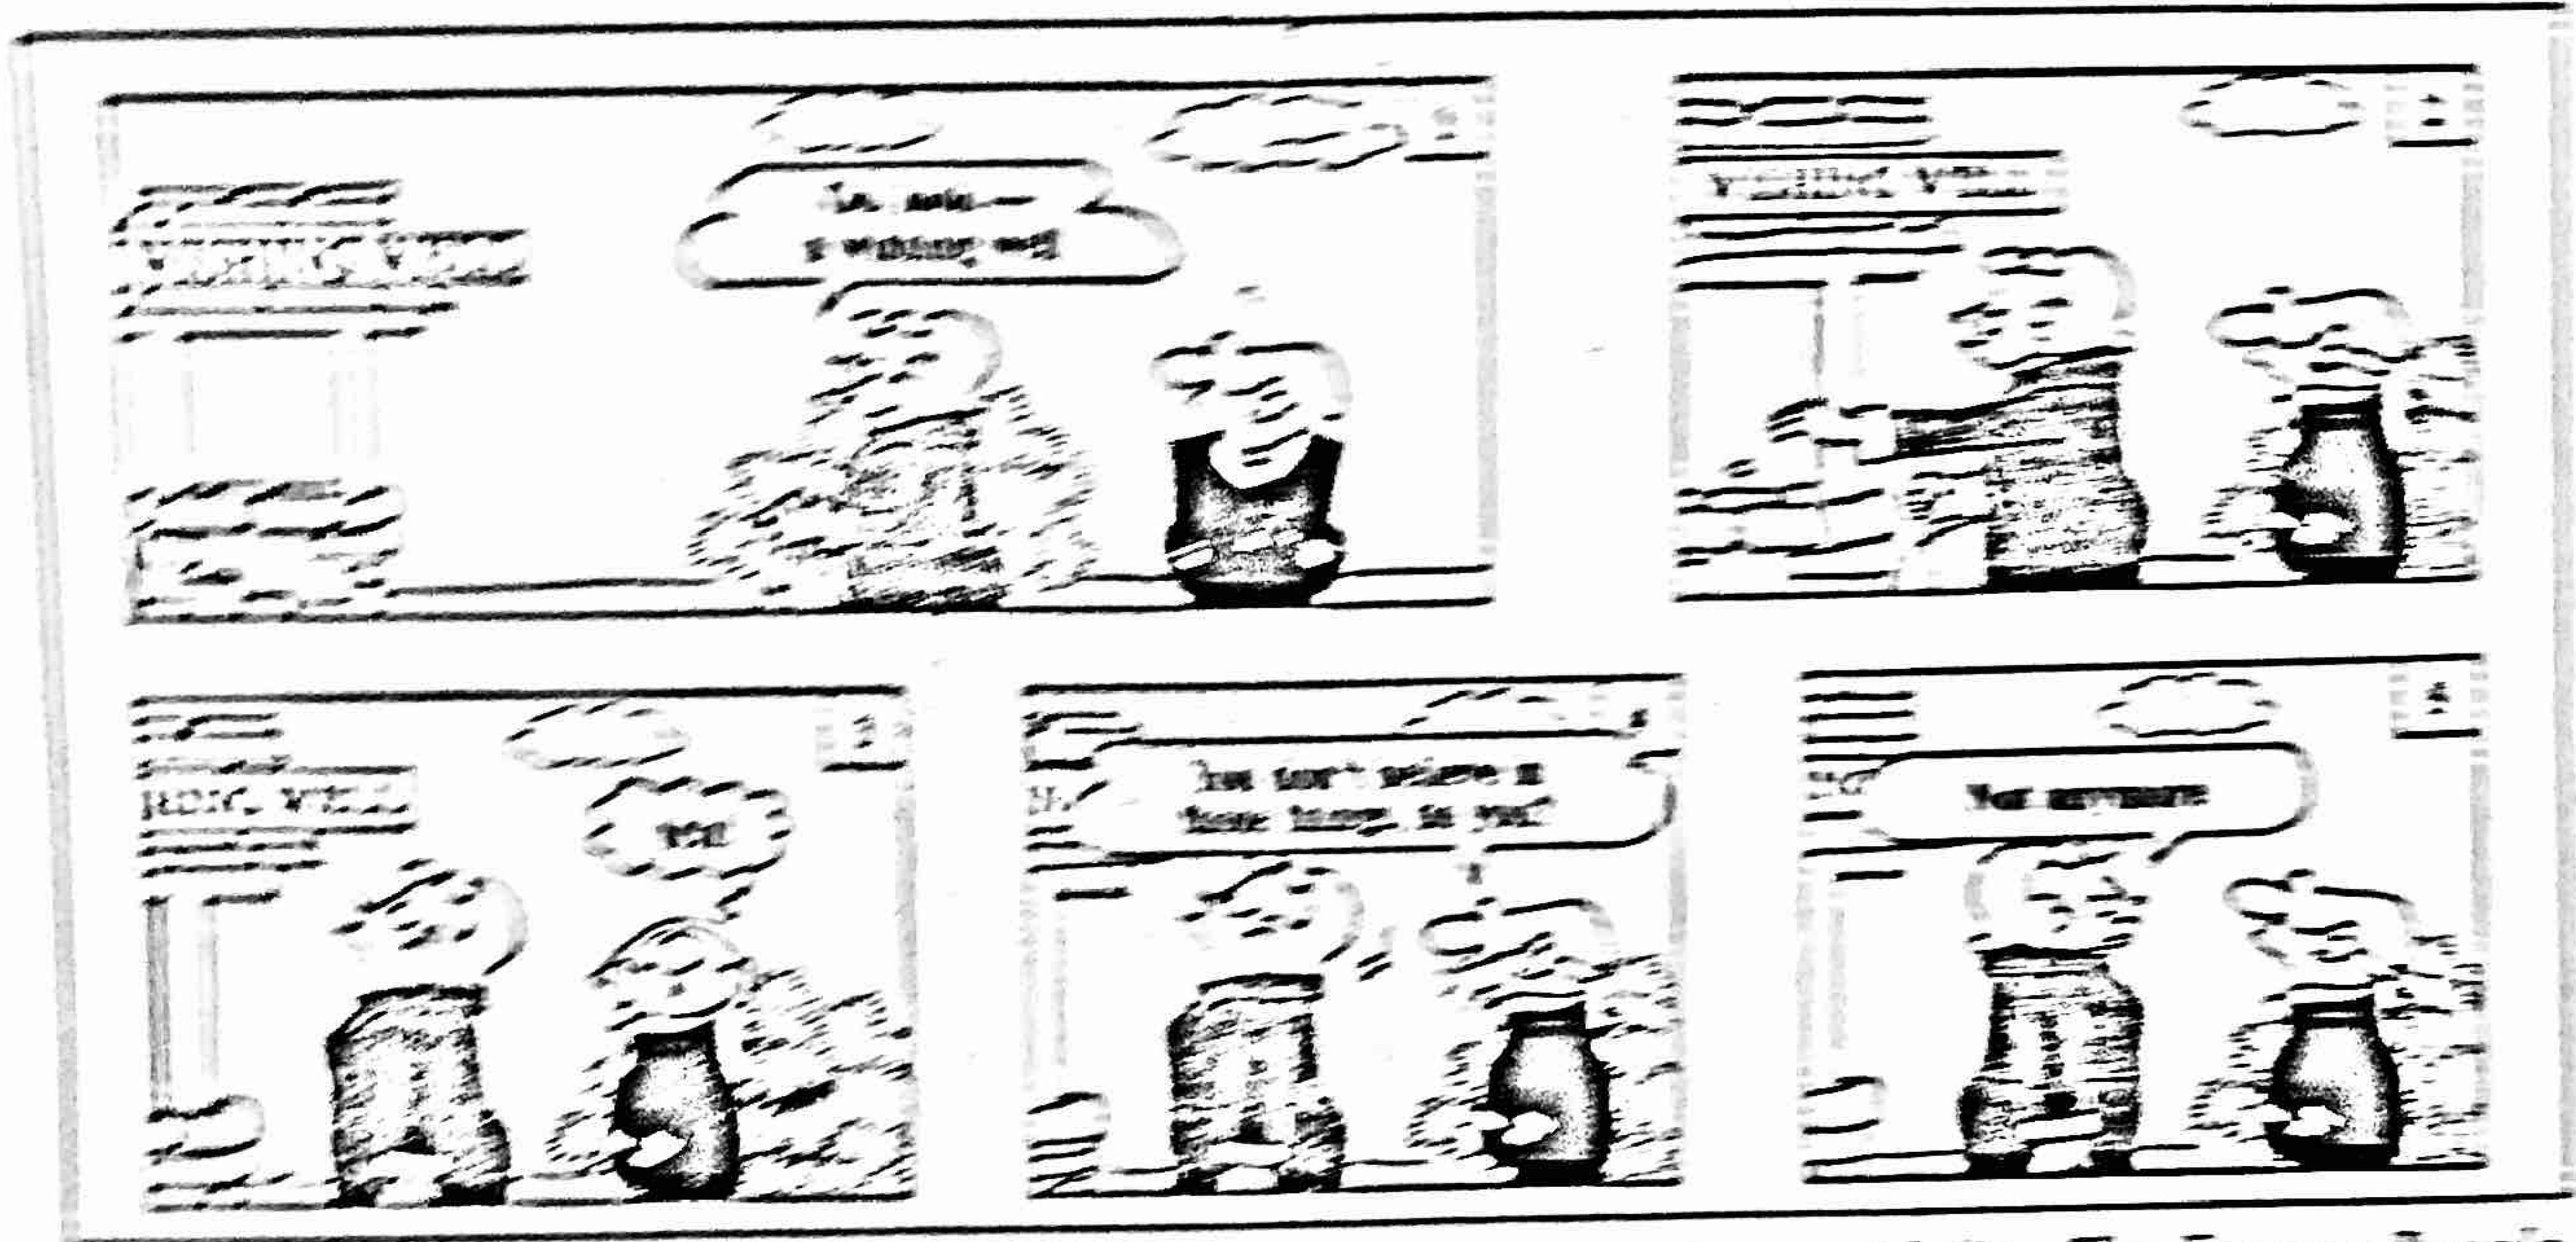

“A pleasant, good evening. How are you friends and fambily? Let me see the hands of those who are having a good time. Come on, let me see the hands of those who are having a good time. Wave your hands and say ‘bling, bling’.

Okay. Why I favour Caribbean persons is that my parents are of African descent. The Caribbean is mostly Black Country; therefore, most of the people are black. I am one of them. My father black, my mother black and my brother black. We all black. Some people say I look like my father others say my mother but I think that we all look alike.”

All the students struggled to hide their amusement. They tried to cover their mouths with their hands to avoid laughing out loud at her misunderstanding. Of course, the speaker did not see this as her eyes were glued to the paper from which she was reading.

31. Which of the following BEST explains why the presenter’s introduction would NOT be considered effective?
- (A) The audience was distracted.
 - (B) The focus was on entertainment.
 - (C) It was inappropriate for the context.
 - (D) It was delivered using the wrong register.
32. At which stage of the communication process did the students giggle?
- (A) Feedback
 - (B) Encoding
 - (C) Decoding
 - (D) Conceptualization
33. Which of the following BEST explains why the student misunderstood the question?
- (A) She did not do enough research.
 - (B) She is weak and did not ask questions.
 - (C) She is incapable of using Standard English.
 - (D) She misunderstood a key word in the topic.

Instructions: Read the following cartoon carefully and then answer items 34-38.

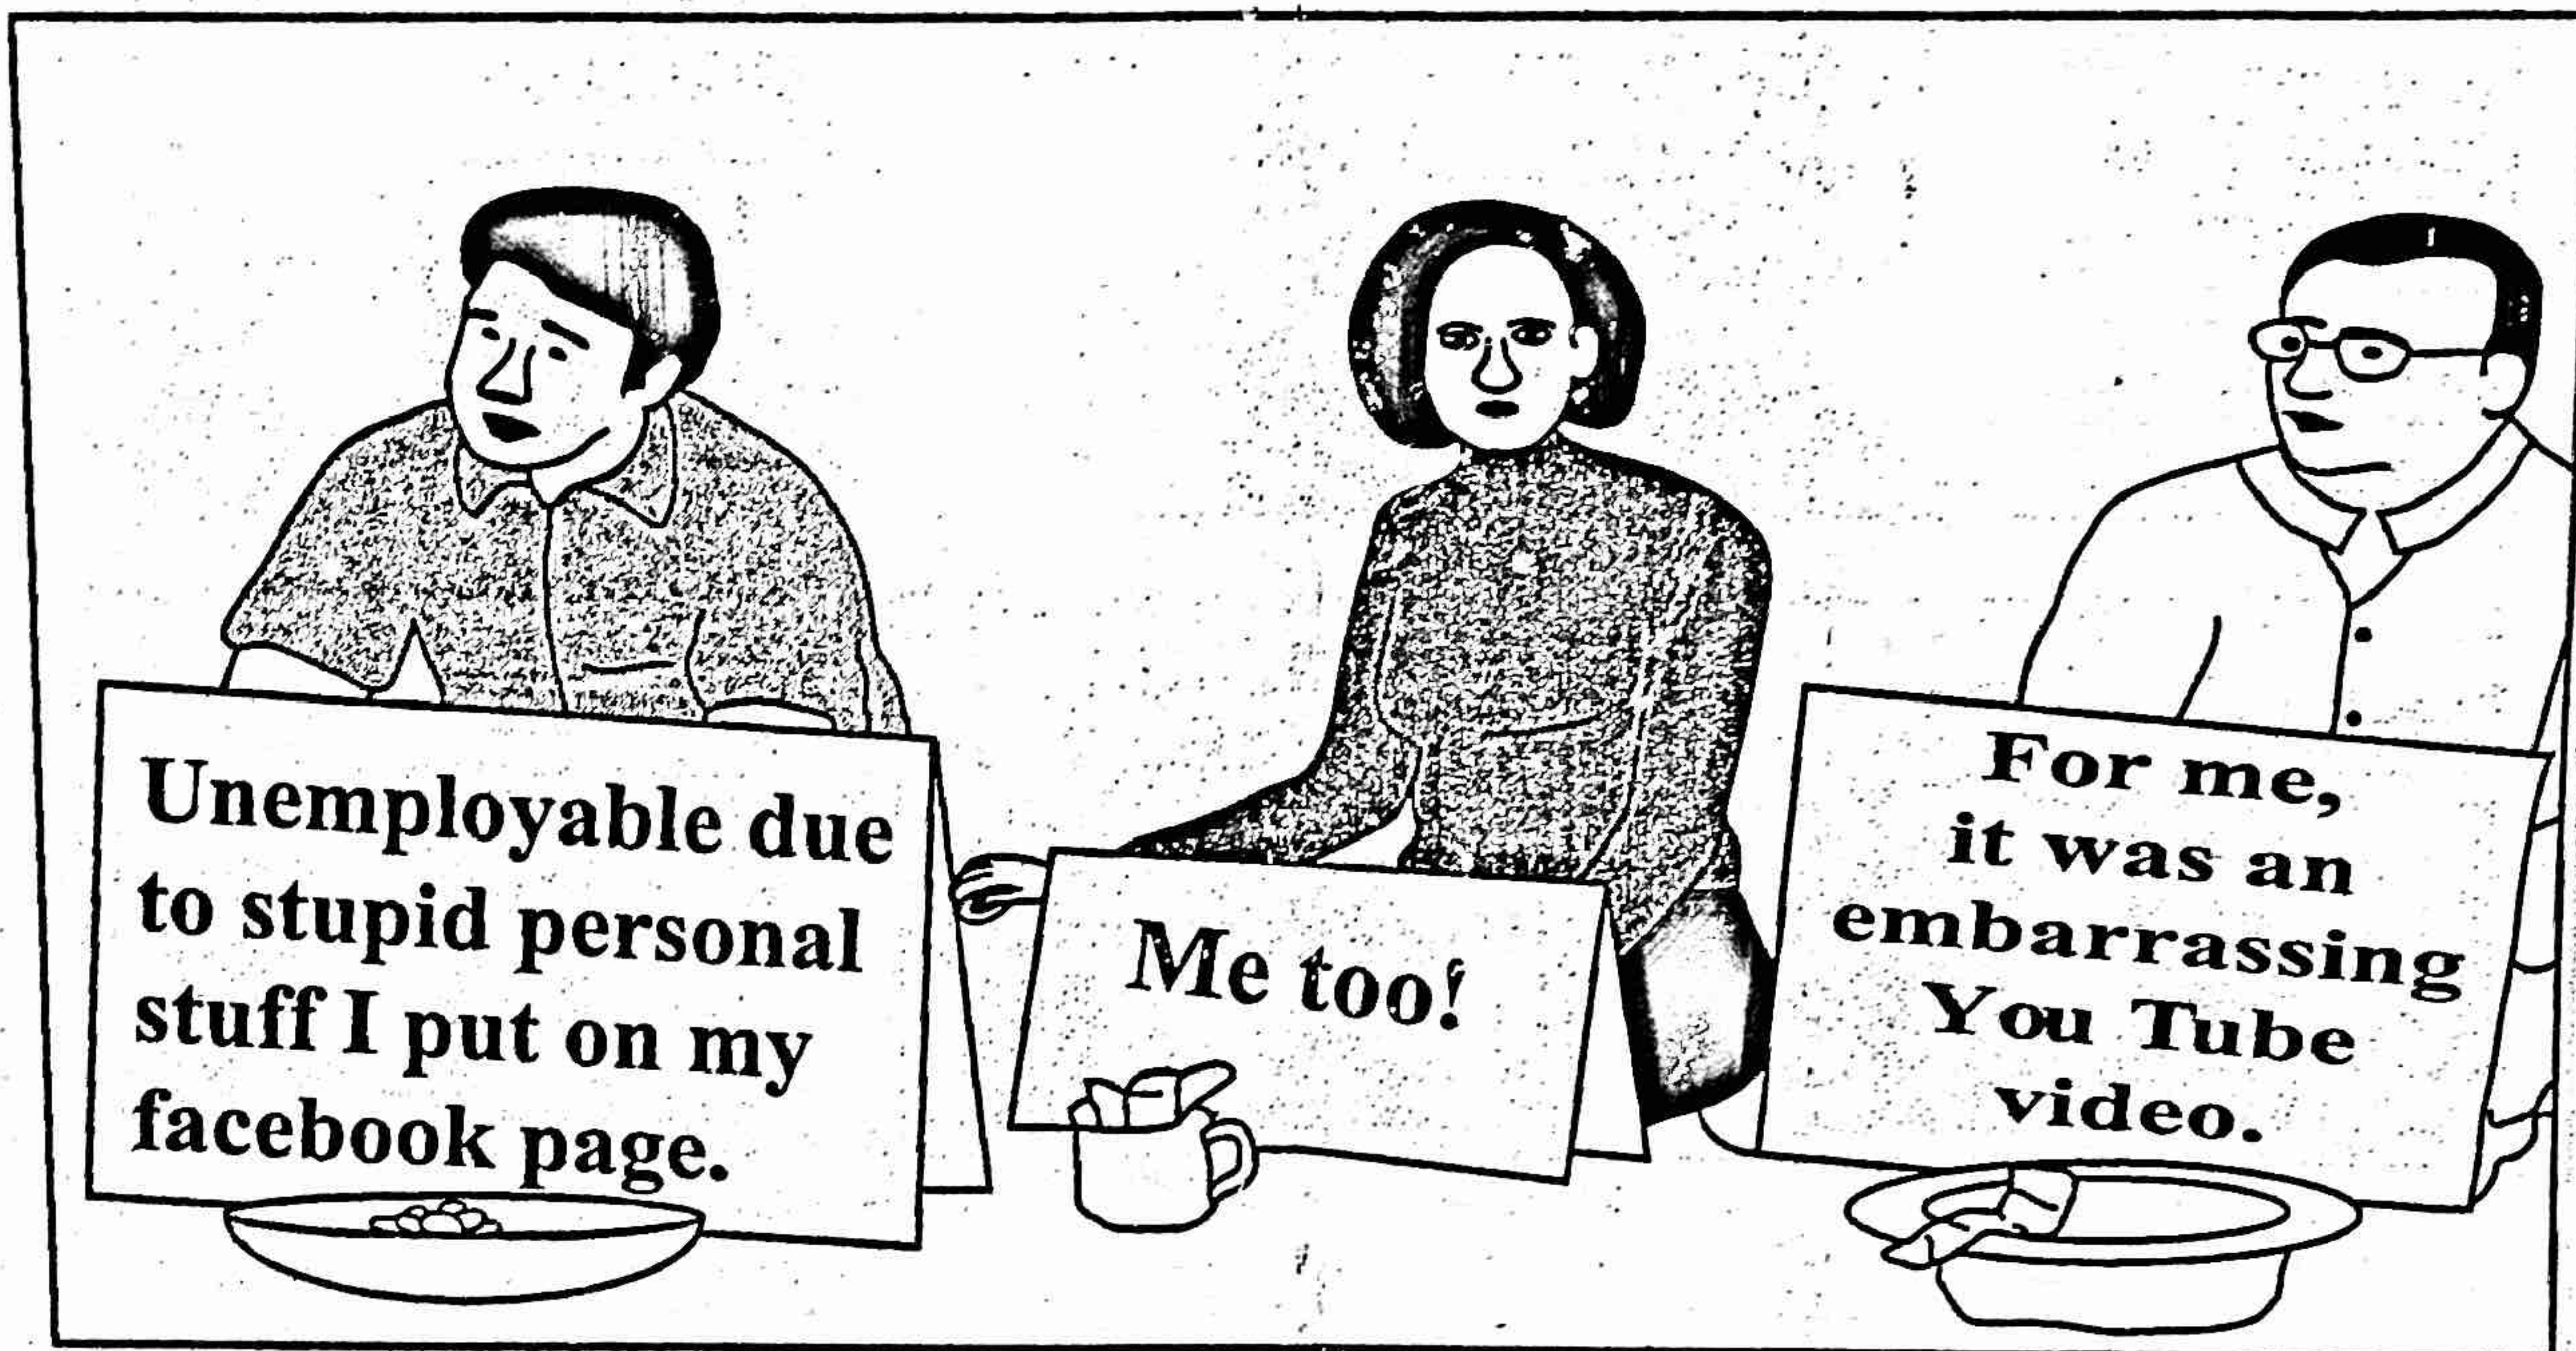

Aspic Media: The Feature People.
Retrieved 19 November 2013 from
www.aspicmedia.com.au

34. The man's body language in Box 1 indicates that he is
- (A) thrilled
(B) irritated
(C) indifferent
(D) supportive
35. The stimulus that prompted the conversation in Box 1 is the
- (A) well
(B) coin
(C) purse
(D) shrub
36. Which of the following words describes the man's tone in Box 4?
- (A) Angry
(B) Disdainful
(C) Despairing
(D) Conciliatory
37. A communicative artefact relevant to the conversation is the
- (A) sky
(B) bag
(C) coin
(D) shrub
38. What kind of communication context is depicted in the conversation?
- (A) Small group
(B) Intercultural
(C) Intrapersonal
(D) Interpersonal

GO ON TO THE NEXT PAGE

Item 39

Instructions: The following scene shows the effects of inappropriate postings on social media by three persons. Read it carefully and then answer Item 39.

Adapted from Signs of the Social Networking Times.

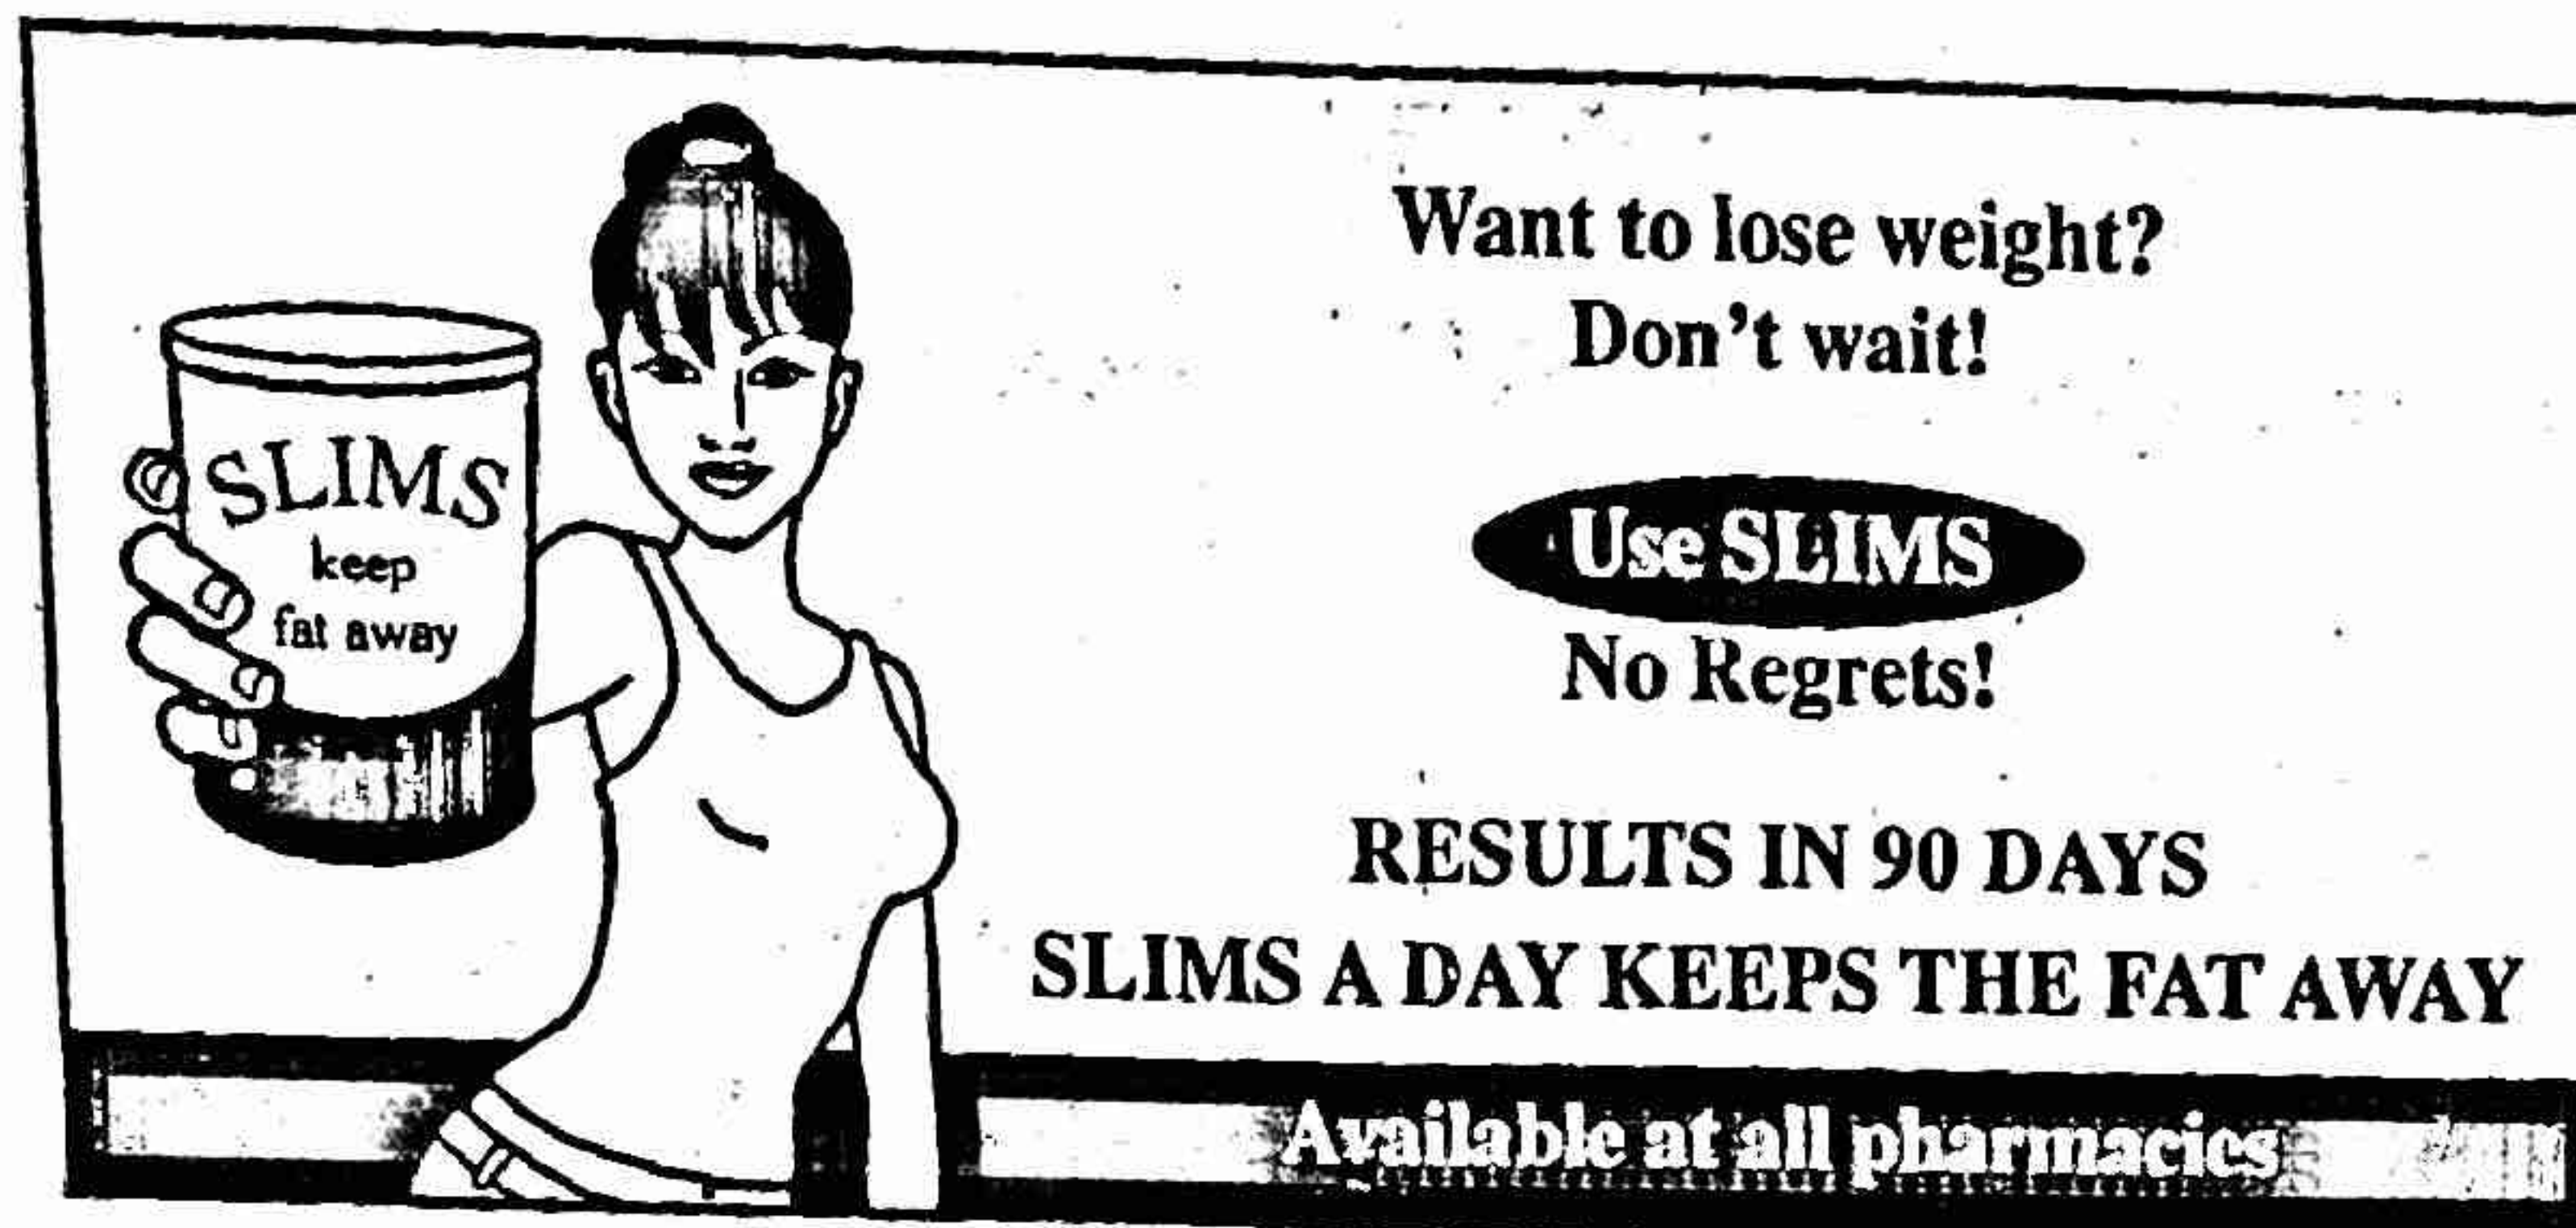

Retrieved 19 November 2013 from

<http://www.geekculture.com/joyoftech/joyarchives/1041.html>.

39. Which of the following is the result of the inappropriate use of social media by the characters?
- (A) Loss of family time
 - (B) Delayed response from employers
 - (C) Damage to the characters' reputations
 - (D) Access by future employers to the Internet

Items 40–42

Instructions: Read the following advertisement carefully and then answer Items 40–42.

40. Which of the following language techniques is NOT used in the advertisement?
- (A) Pun
 - (B) Sarcasm
 - (C) Repetition
 - (D) Rhetorical question
41. The MAIN function of the first line of the advertisement is to
- (A) capture the reader's attention
 - (B) introduce the advertisement
 - (C) help the reader to lose weight
 - (D) encourage the reader to respond
42. "Slims a day keeps the fat away" is an example of which of the following language techniques?
- (A) Simile
 - (B) Rhyme
 - (C) Repetition
 - (D) Personification

GO ON TO THE NEXT PAGE

Item 43 refers to the following scenario.

You are asked to speak to a group of twenty kindergarten children on the topic of environmental cleanliness.

43. Which of the following would be the MOST appropriate way to share the information with your audience?
- (A) Panel discussion
 - (B) Animation and speech
 - (C) A televised documentary
 - (D) A PowerPoint presentation
44. Which of the following is the correct sequence that a presenter should follow to successfully complete the communication process?
- (A) Encoding the message, selecting the channel, selecting audience, disseminating the message
 - (B) Encoding the message, transmitting the message, selecting channel, disseminating the message
 - (C) Conceiving the message, encoding the message, selecting the channel, disseminating the message
 - (D) Conceiving the message, interpreting the feedback, selecting audience, disseminating the message
45. Which of the following is NOT a feature of exposition?
- (A) Use of emotive language
 - (B) Use of supporting details
 - (C) Use of information from experts
 - (D) Use of facts and relevant statistics

END OF TEST

IF YOU FINISH BEFORE TIME IS CALLED, CHECK YOUR WORK ON THIS TEST.