Section 3 Question 4 CONTEXTUAL ANNOUNCEMENT

The following criteria were considered in the assessment of the Contextual Announcement:

- Adherence to the Rubric
- Content
- Correctness of Expression

Adherence to the Rubric

The candidate kept within the confines of the required length as stipulated in the Rubric (80-100 words). N.B. 70-110 words were considered acceptable for marking purposes.

The candidate responded adequately to ALL five cues.

Content

All cues were used very well in an organized and well-developed manner. Ideas were very clearly expressed in a most comprehensible way. There was no interruption to the smooth flow of cues one into the other.

Correctness of Expression

While the candidate lacked flamboyancy of language, the announcement was presented in a simple manner but with outstanding grammatical accuracy.

A fair assortment of tenses was offered, given the nature of the announcement, including Present, Future and even one instance of the use of the Subjunctive Mood “ Es importante que participen”.

The use of the Infinitive after tener que, deber and poder was also commendable.

The lexical range demonstrated a mastery of the vocabulary needed to answer this question adequately.

Measures for improvement

Minor errors like “un empresario for una empresa” could have been easily avoided. The use of idioms would have greatly enhanced the general flavor of the answer.
